

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP FALL SEMESTER 2022

SEPTEMBER 1:00 TO 2:00 PM

OCTOBER 1:00 TO 2:00 PM

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT 101

Presented by: Chelsea Lombrozo, Assistant Director, Leadership & Service (SDSU)

Now more than ever the world needs strong leaders who advocate for change. Whether you consider yourself an activist or you prefer to work behind the scenes, we can all better our community. Let's explore the social and personal value of civic engagement. After this workshop, you will understand the basics of civic engagement, learn how to get involved and know how to market your experiences on your resume.

WHAT'S YOUR TYPE? IDENTIFYING YOUR LEADERSHIP STYLE THROUGH THE MYERS-BRIGGS PERSONALITY TYPE INDICATOR

Have you ever wondered why you can work effectively with some leaders and find it challenging to work with others? Let's take the Myers-Briggs personality type indicator (MBTI) to learn about yourself, how people perceive the world, and how to interact successfully with all types of personalities. Understanding yourself and your leadership style will make you a more effective leader!
