Need Digital Books for Students not Eligible for ATN? 3/19/2020

In light of the response to COVID-19 (Coronavirus) and many schools moving to online/distance learning – many publishers have made digital versions of their books available for free to anyone who has an edu email address. Their digital books are available on RedShelf and VitalSource. Each person can get up to 7 digital books for free until May 25.

Also, Wiley is offering free access to WileyPlus. See this article for details.

- VitalSource Instructions:

1. Go to www.vitalsource.com and create an account if you don't already have one. Make sure to use your edu email address.
2. Login and click on "My Bookshelf" in top right corner.
3. Then click on Explore in the top left corner.
4. Search for the book you need and add it to your Bookshelf and start reading.

- RedShelf Instructions:

1. Go to www.redshelf.com and create an account if you don't already have one. Make sure to use your edu email address.
2. Login and go to <https://www.about.redshelf.com/redshelfresponds>
3. Scroll down a little and click on the button, "Access Free eBooks"
4. Search for the book you need and 'view details' and then 'Add to My Shelf'
